Spiritual Enrichment

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday on February 17th and First Church will offer several opportunities for Spiritual enrichment during the season. We will begin to keep a Holy Lent with a service of the Imposition of Ashes on the 17th at 7:00 p.m. On Wednesdays in Lent Pastor Dillon Staas will lead a Lenten Bible study at 6:00 following the Wednesday night suppers. The study will consider how the passion is presented in the four Gospels. On Sunday, February 28th there will be Lenten Prayer Stations available from 3:00-5:00 in the Kraut sanctuary annex. This will be similar to the Advent Prayer experience that was a blessing to so many in December. There will be daily activities in Holy Week, beginning with our always meaningful Palm Sunday service. On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at noon we will hold the Tri-Church Lenten Services with our friends from First Presbyterian and St. Marks Lutheran churches. The services will once again be a light lunch with music and devotions. On Maundy Thursday evening we will hold a Tenebrae/communion service, and on Friday the Van Wert Ministerial Association will hold its annual Good Friday service. Of course, it will all culminate in a glorious way on Easter morning, April 4th. We hope you will take advantage of these opportunities to enrich your spirit during the season of Lent.

The Sleuth Report

From Felix Mendelssohn to Charles Wesley to David Crowder, First United Methodist Church splendidly accomplishes the Psalmist's admonition, "Sing to Him, sing praise to Him; tell of all of His wonderful acts." But you ask, "Who is David Crowder?" You need go no further than the 9:15 worship service to hear our First Church Praise Band where you will likely not only hear David Crowder, but will sing his praise choruses along with band members Cheri Oechsle, Susan Burchfield, David Mills, Jacob Brake, Diane Thompson, and Dillon Staas.

"The primary focus from the beginning has been to bring people into our church," began bass guitar player and back-up vocalist Susan Burchfield. We know there are lots of people who are comfortable with rock music and high tech media, but who do not worship God. By providing this type of music and media within the walls of the First Church's beautiful sanctuary, our aim is give them a place to meet Jesus Christ." Susan continued, "First Church members are blessed with an outstanding classic and traditional music program. We love and admire that music, and want it always to be the music of this church, but we love reaching out as well with our style of music."

Cheri Oechsle is the musical director of the band. Cheri plays keyboard and sings lead vocal. "Our music is upbeat with lots of chorus repetitions," Cheri explained. "I talk with Reverend Staas to learn the scripture and the theme of each worship service. Then we select our music based upon those themes. The purpose of our music is to allow God to use us to bring people into a state of worship to receive Dillon's or John's message."

What would a rock band be without a drummer? David Mills, a senior at Van Wert High School has been the drummer for several years. "David is the key to what we are able to do," offered one of the band members. "He is extremely skilled and will leave his legacy here at First Church." David is currently tutoring Mathew Oechsle who will continue that legacy as the drummer when David leaves for college.

The rhythm guitar player, who is self-taught, picked up the guitar in 1999. He and a friend played gigs in local restaurants a couple of times a month. That is until he became too busy with his day job, minister. "The first song that I learned to play," laughed Dillon, "was Mommas, Don't Let Your Babies Grow Up to be Cowboys." Dillon, who also sings back-up vocal added, "I'm glad to be involved as senior pastor. Not only do I enjoy playing, but I feel my presence in the band adds credibility to the contemporary service."

Jacob Brake and Diane Thompson round out the band. "I was at church listening to and watching the band," explained Jacob who plays the electric guitar. "I thought, 'I can play some of those notes', so I asked to join." Diane, who sings back-up vocal, felt called to the band as a way to express her love for God. The sleuth salutes Diane, Jacob and all the member of the Praise Band for "raising a joyful song unto God."

What is it?

When is it?

In Kraut

Why?

Sometimes we just need to slow down and let God speak to us. This is a wonderful way to prepare your heart for the joy of Easter.

Contact Jana Thompson if you have questions. This is a great opportunity for Bible Studies and small groups to worship together.

Lent..."So what are you giving up this year for Lent?"

At the Thompson house the answer will cover everything from ice cream to chocolate. While I am a great supporter of this practice (no, I haven't decided this year's sacrifice), I would challenge all of us to look a little deeper at the church Lenten season. Lent traditionally has been a time of prayer, self-examination and preparation to celebrate Easter. It begins with Ash Wednesday—a service that reminds us of our beginnings of dust. It journeys through darkness—Good Friday. It ends with great celebration—Easter. Why not take this Lenten season and add a spiritual component of study and prayer. Consider participating in the "Journey to the Cross" prayer stations on Sunday, February 28. Join our Lent spiritual Formation Group that will meet at noon on Wednesdays. Join the prayer group on Tuesdays to pray for the people and needs of the church. I strongly encourage you to care for your soul this Lenten season...God really does want to be a part of your life 24/7.

If you are interested in the Wednesday spiritual formation group for Lent, please contact Jana.

Youth Group info and updates for February

Teens and Parents, Hey Everybody! Whoowee it has been cold lately but have I got some stuff to warm you up. We have the Super Bowl Party and an awesome 709 at the end of the month. Also Guys next month is the Boy's Chrysalis Flight in Maumee (Any FUMC Boy's in the 9th-12th grades this is for you—talk to me for info J).

One thing I wanted to talk about here though is the topics for this month. Since February always includes Valentines Day it is a ready made month to have some great topics related to relationships/dating/sex/love/ marriage. It gives us a time to really open ourselves up to talk honestly about love and what is right and what is wrong in God's eyes. Parents there will be some frank discussions that I hope then will carry over to some talks that you can have at home. It is a month of discussions that everyone always enjoys because it is something the world tries to tell us is important. There will be lots for everyone. Parents thank you so much for the trust you give the youth leaders of First sharing and talking with your children. I really appreciate it. Teenagers thank you for your honesty and commitment to having a great youth program that really tackles life head on and comes armed with a faith that never wavers.

The Great Commandment

One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?" Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength..."

Bible Song

On the first Sunday of February, parents and children will meet in the dining room of the church for a combined session beginning at 9:30 a.m. Families (that's mom and dad, too) with children of preschoolers through junior high are invited to come and experience a high energy fast paced introduction to "The Uptown District" rotation lesson and verse for the month. It is called "Bible Song." The remaining 3 Sundays will have the preschool children in their classes, elementary children in rotation, the youth and parents in their respective classes.

In this is a very exciting tool called "The Faith 5". If you care to have some fun, keep your family communicating every night, and grow in your understanding of yourself and God, we urge you to try this simple five-step process see if it doesn't help!

Please prayerfully consider joining us and mark Bible Song on your calendars for the 1st Sunday, February 7.

This is important!

Weekday Preschool

The preschool children enjoyed a P.J. party. Everyone wore their PJ's to school. We watched a movie had popcorn, played games and did some night time activities. A fun day for everyone!

This month the children will get ready for Valentines. They will make a Valentine for their Mom and Dad. On their party day everyone will bring a Valentine for their friend and place that Valentine in a special Valentine holder.

We will have a special visitor who will talk to the children about taking good care of their teeth, and how they can do that.

The teachers are preparing for Parent Teacher Conferences. They will be held Feb. 22,23 & 24th. They will meet with the parents and share about the progress of their child.

Children from First United Methodist Church may enroll in Preschool Feb. 22- March 1 for the 2010-11 school year, by calling the preschool. March 1st will begin open registration to the public.

The 4&5 and Pre-K children continue to enjoy their monthly Brumback Library visit.

December 28, 2009

Dear Friends,

This will be our last month as coordinators of the Co-Op Food Pantry. The new people taking over are Sue Linton of Wesley Church and Demond and Lisa Johnson of First Church. We have been training them for a couple of months now and they are finding out it is a lot of work, but enjoying it as we have. We have met so many people over the years who volunteered to work at the pantry, those who donate food and monetary gifts, plus clients.

As Van Wert suffers with job loss, other people like yourselves have really come forward with so many donations. The pantry has been blessed and has been able to help so many people because of all of you. Many churches, students, clubs, companies and individuals (and the list goes on and on) help keep your pantry full.

In December we served 179 adults and 80 children. That translates to 96 families. For the year 2009, we served 1, 140 families; 2008, 950; 2007, 843; 2006, 777; 2005, 767; and 2004, 727.

As you see, our pantry, although a small pantry, is growing and it needs all our help in gifts and prayers. Thank you for all of that in our 5 years as coordinators.

God Bless You all

John and Delores Myers

Thank you John and Delores for doing such a great job with the Pantry.

God bless you both.

A short one this month-----from the August 22, 1961 Friendly Visitor-----In Pittsburgh one thousand new members in one hundred churches were interviewed on how they first happened to come to that church. By far the greatest majority said "A friend invited us." Which new members have you invited into the First United Methodist Church within the year? Within the past five years?-----Someone said "Those who don't invite their friends to their church are either ashamed of their church or ashamed of their friends."-----Ah, well-----David
