Moving Toward Easter

March is in many ways a transition month. It begins in the cold and often dreary winter, and ends in the warmer and usually brighter spring. It is also usually the month in which most of Lent falls. In the church that means a transition from ordinary time to Easter celebration. In Lent we prepare our hearts for the gift of Easter in many ways.

LENTEN BIBLE STUDY We are offering a Lenten Bible Study this year on the Passion of the Christ as it is presented in the four Gospels. The first four Wednesdays in March I will teach a one hour class on the Passion beginning at 6:00 p.m. There is no cost and the only material needed will be your Bible.

HOLY WEEK This year we will again hold our Trichurch Lenten Services on Monday through Wednesday of Holy Week. We will gather at noon for a brief meditation and a light lunch. This year St. Marks Lutheran Church will provide the lunch, music, and message for one day. Our turn will be on Tuesday.

fering at Easter, which goes to the Trustees for some special project at the church. That project will be identified in the mailing which will be coming to you just before Easter. We hope you will consider your gift a part of your keeping a Holy Lent, and preparing your heart for God's gift of Easter.

Here is a thought for you ponder this Lenten season. Your life is God's gift to the world. Live it in such a way as to make the most of it. It will bless his people, and honor his name.

The Sleuth Report

Question: What goes together like love & marriage or like a horse and a carriage?

Answer: The Hal Hunt Sunday School Class and First United Methodist Church.

Every Sunday morning, year-round, between 25 and 35 men and women gather in the church basement as part of a tradition that dates to the 1930's. These folks, who range in age from 65 years young to the mid 90's, are led by teacher Dave Ziegler who uses the International Sunday School Lesson Annual, a United Methodist curriculum which follows the international lectionary.

Named for Hal Hunt, the earliest recollection of the class is by Paul Ross, age 93. "Hal Hunt was my Sunday school teacher when I was ten or eleven years old, "remembered Paul. "When it was time for us kids to move to an older class, we wanted Hal to go with us, and he did," continued Paul. As time passed by, Hunt found himself with the adult senior class.

Hal Hunt and his wife, Trudy, emigrated from Canada.

As the story goes, they crossed the border with baby Barbara, their oldest child, in a basket in the back seat of the car. The immigration officers did not ask about the baby, and it was not until years later when Barbara wanted to travel outside the United States, that she was recognized as a US citizen. Hal was owner of a book store located in the Pollock Building. Bud and Dave were Hal and Trudy's other children. In 1960 Hunt decided to visit son Bud, a missionary in Korea, and while he was at it spent five months traveling in the Far East. His letters home, which were published in The Times-Bulletin, are in a book in our church library today. Mr. Hunt passed away in 1974.

The class may be named for Hal Hunt, but a number of teachers have over the years maintained his high standards. Bruce Cunningham, Mildred Chilles, Bob Games, Genevieve Foltz, Carole Dunaway, Herb Kephart, and Doug Loudenslager are names that were brought to the sleuth's attention.

As was pointed out to the sleuth by several class members, "You do not ask a lady her age." But the sleuth did learn that Louise Tingley, Grace Foy, Florence Leiter, Belle Bolton, Walt Harris, Don and June Shriver, Wayne and Mary Compton, Ginger and Forest Gribler, Betty and Ralph Tribolet, Louise Kephart and Dave Zeigler are long-time members. Many readers will also remember Howard Foltz and Eileen Harris. "The rest of us are too young to be mentioned," quipped one of the class members.

"Ours is a tight-knit group," commented Dave Ziegler. "It's more than a Bible Study. We have always elected officers and organized social events." Those events include picnics, pot-luck dinners, and outings to shows and restaurants. Every 3rd Sunday the members give a double offering. The extra money is donated to church organizations and activities. Dave seemed especially proud of the support that the class has given the youth ministries.

To describe the class, members used words like friendly, social activities, excellent teachers, and open discussion. Anna Arnold who has been attending for the past three years volunteered, "This class is what makes First Church special for me." Evelyn Brown added, "The Hal Hunt class is how I melded into the Van Wert community."

Youth Group info and updates for March

THE STUFF: Youth Group info and updates for March

Teens, Parents and Everyone else,

What a great month we are about to begin! Why Jon, Why is it a great month? Well, because of three things...

First, March is always a Chrysalis month! That means March 12-14th we have a Boys Chrysalis coming up and as of this writing we have 3 guys trying to attend this flight with 2 more thinking about it! Whoo Hoo! That is something to celebrate.

Second, March is always Winter Jam! Each of the last 2 years we have left earlier and earlier to try to get to Winter Jam and we always get closed out so this year we will leave right after school to stand in line. So that means on March 11th we are headed to Fort Wayne for Winter Jam 10! It is a great setup this year with Third Day and Newsboys all for only $10!

And thirdly (thirdly is that a word I don't know but I will use it lol!), March means that we are one month closer to ICHTHUS! You can start getting your Ichthus tickets anytime they are only $90 this year!

Now if that doesn't get you excited we also have a cool 709 to close out the month on the 28th.

Well, I hope to see you at some of these things... Remember that we love you and we have been praying for you.

Philippians 4:13

Weekday Preschool

The month of March will be a busy time for the Preschool:

March 1 - Preschool Open registration begins for the 2010-2011 school year. If you would like to register your child or have any questions you may call the preschool office 419-238-0631 ex.1 The Preschool will have an Open House March 1st.at 9:00a.m. - 10:30a.m.. The purpose of the Open House is to visit a class room and see a preschool class "in action".

If you have any question about the preschool, feel free to call or come to the Open House.

March 1 - March 11 - The preschool will celebrate Ohio Right To Read. We will have guest readers to read a favorite book to the children and will have special projects to go along with special books. We will visit the Brumback Library for story time. To finish up our Right To Read we will end with a Beach Reading Party!

March 22- 26 will be Spring Break. After Spring Break we will come back to school to prepare for Easter.

The children enjoy the snow, but they will look forward to Spring.

From the Archives...

From July 5, 1961-----Meet the disciples----Peter, the rock. Simon Peter always heads the list of the disciples. He has this number one position because he was the spokesman for the group. Many times the Bible tells us the exact words of Peter and we hardly even know that the others were present. Jesus gave him the name "Peter." It is Greek for "Rock." Jesus recognized his courage and boldness and thought this name a good one for him. Capernaum was Peter's hometown. He had a house and family there and made his living fishing in the sea of Galilee. After teaching in the cities along the Mediterranean coast and in Samaria, Peter was put in prison in Jerusalem. His escape was miraculous. Read the story in Acts 12:3-25. Then Peter preached in Antioch, the city where Jesus' followers were first called Christians, and other places. His wife went with him, and so did John Mark. We are not sure, but the story goes that Peter was crucified in Rome. They say that he felt unworthy to die as Jesus did, and so he asked to be crucified head downward. Peter is represented in sacred art by a gold and silver key. These remind us of Jesus words to Peter, "I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven." Note-----From time to time, I may give you the rest of the disciples, from the archives-----David
